PHILLIPS ACADEMY

ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS

FOUNDED at Andover, Mass., 1778, by the gifts of Hon. Samuel Phillips and his uncle, Hon. John Phillips. Others have added to the original foundations by endowments of several kinds, and various scholarships have been established. The total endowment is $2,950,789.

Phillips Academy has established very high repute for its broad scholarship, for its elevated ideals, and especially for the practical success which has been attained by its students.

In all the leading professions and every useful avenue of endeavor, its alumni are found among leaders. In all the great colleges, and particularly Yale and Harvard, the graduates of this Academy have for years been distinguished for their thoroughness of preparation and success in their college work. The Academy has also done a useful work in the education of boys who have not gone to college. Especially is it distinguished for its American, democratic spirit, the sons of the wealthiest men in the country mingling with boys who are working their way through school.

The courses of the Academy have thoroughly readjusted and adapted themselves to the highest collegiate requirements. The ability of its faculty, the excellence of its equipment, its library and laboratory facilities, the prestige of honorable history and other advantages and achievements have placed Phillips Academy in the front rank of American schools.

THE VALLEY RANCH

BRAND

HORSEBACK TRIP IN THE ROCKIES FOR BOYS

The party leaves New York in private Pullmans on July 1st, arriving in Cody, Wyoming, on July 5th for a day of the famous Cody Stampede, an exhibition of the days of the Old West.

From this point a forty day saddle and trail trip commences through Yellowstone National Park, Jackson's Hole, and the Wyoming Big Game Country returning to Valley Ranch for a few days' visit and the Ranch Roundup before returning East.

The party is on the go all the time through the most beautiful, interesting, and picturesque wild country of America. Seven weeks of solid fun and enjoyment.

From a Recreational and Educational standpoint this trip can not be duplicated.

EDITORIAL

AS this volume goes to press, we see much that we should change, had we the work to do over. Perhaps the old adage to the effect that familiarity breeds contempt is partly to blame for this feeling of disenchantment. We hope so. But good, bad, or indifferent it represents our best efforts, and we are satisfied to stand or fall by it.

We do not wish our readers to forget that a great part of whatever credit is due this book should go to Mr. Leonard, our Faculty Advisor, and to "Johnny" Carden, of the Andover Press. Without the sympathetic interest and practical knowledge of these men, less than nothing could have been accomplished.

CLASS HISTORY

The Junior Year

IT was in the fall of 1919 when the class of 1923, then the despised Junior Class, first saw the autumnal campus of Andover, and were put through the annual classic, the "prep" parade.

We were indeed a fortunate class. It was with our advent that the football sons of the Blue were able to break Exeter's long gridiron winning streak of six years, and bring the Red and Gray down to defeat in that thrilling 19-0 soul-stirring battle which will never be forgotten by those who saw it. It was truly a wonderful triumph, and it is with some pride that we say that 1923 was represented by Aime A. LaTulippe. Our miracle coach, Fred Daly, and Captain "Bud" Adams led the eleven.

We came back to face perhaps the hardest winter of our four years — snow, and more snow, and sometimes nothern lights. We met Exeter in four branches of athletics, hockey, basketball, swimming, and relay. Hockey was lost to our rivals, with Stephen H. Bishop as the only member of 1923 on the team. Swimming was taken up and a meet was held with Exeter for the first time in the history of the school. Andover was victorious, 33-20. The basketball game, resumed after several years, was won by the Blue in a wonderful fighting finish, 32-27. 1923 was represented by Victor R. Macdonald. The relay race, despite the excellent coaching of Ray Shepard, was lost to the Red and Gray sprinters in the B. A. A. meet.

The spring term came and found baseball fever in the air. The Blue nine had an excellent preliminary season and a victory over the Exeter team was generally predicted, but the day of the game came, and found the favorite beaten again, as so often happens in the Andover-Exeter contests. Exeter won, 8-5. LaTulippe and Macdonald represented 1923 on the team.

The track team, although it lost the final meet to Exeter, nevertheless had a very successful season, winning every other contest, with the exception of the Harvard Interscholastics, in which the team finished second. The final meet with the Red and Gray was lost by Captain Hills' men by the close score of 58½ to 50½. The Blue team was handicapped by the miserable weather conditions, as a steady rain fell throughout the entire day. Cox represented 1923.

Thus ended a year of successes and disappointments, victory and defeat. We had come to the end of our first year at Andover. We were full-fledged "old men." 1923 was no longer the "baby" class of the school. We were at the end of our first long step at Andover, and were ready to climb, to look back upon our deeds and misdeeds, to reap some of the rewards of work well done, and to begin work in a new and far different sphere of activity.

The Lower Middle Year

WE returned to Andover in the fall of 1920 with our hair parted in the middle and a new aspect on school life. We had served our apprenticeship as "preps" and were well qualified to inspire the awe necessary to the new man towards those who have gone through the trials and tribulations of the first year.

Football immediately claimed our attention. We watched Coach Daly take some fifty raw candidates with only three veterans of the famous 19-0 team back; we saw them stagger through a rather mediocre season; and then we watched eleven muddy blue-jersied players smash through the Exeter line with a 6-3 victory! From the class of 1923 were four men on the team: Wolfe, Kern, LaTulippe and Leo Daley.

We came back in the winter term to the usual hard, long grind. Basketball claimed most of our attention in athletic lines, but Exeter turned out a team which scored two more baskets than the Andover quintet, the score being 47-43. In swimming, the Crimson natators won a hard victory by the score of 31-22. Wrestling was very successful: our rival in that sport, Worcester, tasted defeat in the final meet of the season. The track team won the first leg on the Harvard Interscholastic Cup which is now in our possession for good, but we lost the B. A. A. relay race to Exeter.

In baseball we faced a serious problem, for none of the previous year's veterans had returned. In track it seemed as if we might be able to whip Exeter, but when the last weeks of the school year came on, we saw the valiant Blue track team go down to defeat with the score 59 $\frac{1}{4}$ to 48 $\frac{3}{4}$. It was one of the hardest fought meets ever staged on Andover hill. In some measure we gained revenge for this defeat by going up to Exeter and beating them decisively in a great 3-1 victory. In baseball our class was represented by Christie, W. B. Jones, G. Case, and E. Rice. In track we had Wolfe and Avery.

In lines outside of athletics, the year 1920-21 was unusually eventful. The Mirror startled everyone by appearing in very much enlarged form, and it was brilliantly managed throughout the year by Ludlam who was later succeeded by G. H. D. Robbins. The Phillipian was successfully managed by H. A. Willard and the POT POURRI by L. S. Hammond.

And so it was a banner year. The leaders were perhaps the most efficient Andover has ever known, and almost never since the old school was founded back in 1778, has there been such little cause for complaint. It was a glorious year in every respect.

The Upper Middle Bear

ONCE more our Alma Mater received us. How elevated we considered our status to be from that of previous years! The large number of seeming responsibilities made us feel sophisticated. How marked was the change in our attitude from that which we had held just two years before!

The satellite which was paramount over our interests during the fall term was football, through the preliminary season of which we passed without being scored on. But alas, all exultancy was suppressed when, in a cold, clammy rain, the Blue had to tender its sword to Exeter by a 34 to 3 defeat. 1923 sent Bradley, Daley, Wolfe, Gill, Johnstone, and A. Kern on the field.

Upon our return for the winter term, track, hockey, wrestling, basketball, and swimming assailed us with a vengeance. The Blue relay quartet broke a string of defeats when they were victorious over Exeter in the B. A. A. games. The maxim, "Good things come in pairs," prevailed when the hockey team a little later defeated her rival 3 to 0. Ellison, Walker, and Quarrier were the representatives of 1923. Exeter, however, unexpectedly atoned for these defeats by winning basketball 27 to 24. Miller was our class's only claim. After a rather unsuccessful season in swimming, Exeter further expiated her defeats when she completely outclassed our mermen.

The social activities during the winter term consisted of the customary recitals and the dances. The concerts at Rogers Hall and Bradford met with the usual approval. The Senior Prom was greeted with much enthusiasm and was, of course, well attended.

Spring came and went with its habitual bang. In track, we enjoyed according to indications, the prospect of having one of the best teams in years. We got first place in the Harvard Interscholastics, but alas, lost to Exeter by the narrow margin of $69\frac{3}{4}$ to $56\frac{1}{4}$. However, two school records were established, three were broken, and the interscholastic high hurdle record was lowered. 1923's quota was Hutchinson, Bradley and Wolfe.

The preliminary season in baseball was very discouraging, since many of the games were lost by one run. In the letter game, Exeter was forced to lower her colors to the tune of a 15 to 2 beating. Among the members of the team who were borne aloft on the shoulders of the seething, joy-mad student body, J. Kern, Smith, Jones, Johnstone, and Cushing represented the Upper Middle Class.

The tennis team also had a very good season. They won the Harvard Interscholastics and beat Exeter. L. Gordon and L. Watson were from our class.

The Rifle Club won the majority of its matches, while the Dramatic Club under the excellent guidance of Mr. Stearns, presented three plays, which were well attended and appreciated.

The Senior Year

AND now we enter upon our fourth and last year, a year which marks the climax of our life at Andover, and brings with it the termination of our prep school days. For the first time we have tasted real responsibilities, and have felt that new and undefinable thrill of being called Seniors.

During our reign as leaders of the school, the campus has taken on a new appearance. Upon our return we found a new dormitory completed and Pearson Hall moved. The Memorial Tower has been erected, and the baseball cage and the new main building are approaching completion.

The football team with six veterans was fast whipped into shape by Coach Daly and Captain Johnstone. The preliminary season was quite successful, but we were defeated in the Exeter game by a much heavier and more experienced team. The score was close, the margin being 12-3. 1923 was well represented by Daley, Kern, Bradley, Murphy, Failing, Foote, and Manager Multer.

The soccer team had a very successful season, defeating Worcester for the first time. Cross-country claimed many, and a well balanced team was turned out.

The outcome of the winter sports was also to some degree successful. Coached by George Temple and captained by Ellison, the hockey team had a partially satisfactory season, but was defeated by Exeter, 6-0. The Seniors on the team were Captain Ellison, Failing, Quarrier, Bremer, Brown, and Manager Jones. The basketball team coached by Mr. Daly, likewise had a varied season, but proved to be Exeter's superior, this time by a score of 27-23, in the Exeter gym. 1923 claims Hitchcock, Potter, and Manager Blanchard. Exeter was victorious in swimming, but was met by a much improved and faster Andover team than that of the previous year. Harris, Bradeen and Manager Cleaveland represented our class. The wrestling team on the same day closed a remarkable season by defeating Worcester 9-8. 1923 was well represented by Captain Look, Chalker, Turner, Bruce, and Manager Allen.

With the arrival of spring, our thoughts turn to track, baseball, and tennis. Prospects are bright, especially in the case of the latter two, and, although it is impossible to predict the outcome of an Andover-Exeter contest, we have great hopes of concluding our athletic year with three victories.

But Seniors have been active not only in athletics. The Phillipian and Mirror have been ably controlled by Greene, Merrill, and Cleaveland, while Murphy manages the POT POURRI. The musical Clubs, Blue Book, Dramatic Club, Society of Inquiry, and the Senior Prom have been unusually successful under the leadership of men from our class. This year these extra-curriculum activities have taken a bigger place in school life than ever before.

Musical Clubs

THE Combined Musical Clubs have enjoyed a most successful season, both from a musical and a social standpoint, due to the talent and spirit exhibited by the members and to the untiring efforts of Mr. Handley and Mr. Pfatteicher in developing and training this talent. Many fellows reported for the trials, which were held soon after school started. From then until the first concert there were weeks of practice which made the performance a success.

The season was opened with a concert at Rogers Hall on January 20th, in which about ninety fellows took part. Beside the regular clubs, there were several selections by the Jazz Band and recitations by Francis Verigan which were enjoyed very much. This was followed by a concert in the Stone Chapel on March 3rd and the Andover-Exeter concert at Exeter, on March 17th. Both the Andover and the Exeter organizations acquitted themselves admirably, and the music chosen by both was exceptional in the quality of its selection and delivery. On April 21st, about twenty-five men from the Glee Club went to New York where they took part in the Inter-Preparatory Glee Club Contest and won second honors. The next concert was held at Bradford Academy on April 28th and was followed by a return dance on May 2nd. The Rogers Hall return dance held on May 3th proved a most successful conclusion to the activities of the 1922-23 clubs.

DRAMATICS

Without a doubt the general popularity and importance of the Dramatic Club among school activities has increased this year more than any other. In fact, the growth of dramas has now reached a point where plays are given outside Andover, and next year's plans are even more extensive.

After a successful year in 1922, Mr. Harold Stearns, the coach and faculty-adviser, devised a somewhat elaborate system for the machinery of the coming year. Frank Verigan was elected President and Eric Haight was chosen Secretary-Treasurer. Additional offices were introduced and William Birch, Godwin Castleman, and Malcolm McComb were elected to the positions of Stage, Property and Publicity Manager, respectively.

From the eighty or so aspirants who were given trials and from the members of last year's club, the casts were picked for The Medicine Show, by Stuart Walker; Ile, by Eugene O'Neil; and The Pot-Boiler, by Alice Gerstenberg. These plays were given on March 9th, before an audience of 700, which completely filled the Town Hall. The acting of Verigan and Monroe featured in Ile, and The Medicine Show was played excellently, although the subtlety of the play escaped most of the audience. The Pot-Boiler proved to be the most successful of the three, and great credit is due McComb and Scott, who interpreted their parts to perfection.

On April fourteenth the club journeyed to Rogers Hall and gave two of its plays, Ile and The Pot Boiler. The audience was somewhat unappreciative, and, while the actors played their roles with unique skill, the spectators did not give them the support they deserved. This was the first performance that the Dramatic Club has ever given at Rogers, and it is hoped that the event will occur annually between the two schools.

According to present plans, the club is planning to give the Pot-Boiler again during Commencement week along with another play, a society comedy, which has not yet been decided upon.

SOCIETY OF INQUIRY

The Society of Inquiry

THE Society of Inquiry began its activities for 1922-23 with a reception held at the gymnasium the evening of Sunday, September 17. As in former years, the new and old men were given a chance to see something of one another. For the benefit of the new men, who at that early date were ignorant of Andover's customs and traditions, representatives of the various sides of school life outlined their activities and told of Andover's hopes and plans for the ensuing year.

During the fall term, the Society met regularly every Sunday night in Peabody House. Outside delegates were entertained and some very interesting groups came from Harvard, Princeton, and other colleges. We were also fortunate enough to secure a number of chapel speakers, who gladly addressed the meetings. In accordance with an old custom, the Society, in the latter part of the term, exchanged delegations with Exeter.

Throughout the winter term, a series of discussions on "Life's Fundamentals" was held. After Sunday morning chapel, some member of the Faculty would conduct an open meeting in Peabody House and discuss the particular phase of "Life's Fundamentals" which had been assigned to that meeting. These meetings were tried as an experiment, but they soon became a regular part of the Sunday life on the hill and were considered by those who attended, to be highly interesting and instructive.

In the Spring Term, the Society plans to receive several college delegations and to organize an old-clothes drive for the benefit of European refugees. Several drives for similar ends have been very successfully conducted. At the close of this year, a group of students representative of the school, will be sent by the Society as an Andover delegation to take part in the conference of Eastern schools at Silver Bay. This conference is held as a sort of informal religious convention where all can talk over their problems and get one another's view-point and advice.

The Society of Inquiry was founded in 1833 and is one of the oldest religious organizations of its kind in the country. Its object is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school life a strong, high, moral sentiment, and it is most sincerely hoped by the retiring officers that this year has proved no exception to the rule.

PHILLIPIAN BOARD

The Phillipian

THE 1923 Phillipian Board kept up the high standards of former years. Under the guidance of Roger D. Greene and F. T. Merrill, all school news and the main events transpiring in the world at large were promptly and accurately reported. Engstrum more than did his share of the work in managing the business side.

Collectively and individually the members of both editorial and business boards showed marked interest and enthusiasm in their task. From this competent group Skinner and Toner were chosen as editor-in-chief and business manager for the 1924 board. With these men as a nucleus, the publication should continue as one of the best school or even college newspapers in the country.

We wish to thank the Phillipian in behalf of the school for its good work during the year, and wish it success for the future.

MIRROR BOARD

The Mirror

THE Mirror, now in the seventy-seventh year since the founding, and in the third year since the alteration from a purely literary publication into a semi-humorous magazine, has passed through another fairly successful year. Those who have read the seven or so numbers published have, for the most part, enjoyed the editorials, literary contributions, drool, and drawings. This last department has been exceptionally good and the work of Fitchen and Ames has been the feature of many numbers. Stories by Verigan, Watson, and Castleman have also contributed to making the magazine interesting, and a few clever poems and bits of humor have been unearthed. It is the opinion of many, however, that a humorous publication has no place in Andover, mostly because the humor, both in the Mirror and in the school, is greatly lacking.

The Editorial Department has been well taken care of by F. M. Cleaveland and M. L. Smith as Editor-in-Chief and Managing Editor, while S. Walker, Jr., and R. R. Cookman, Jr., have successfully managed the finances of the magazine.

POT POURRI BOARD

The Pot Pourri

WE can make little comment on our volume, and keep between the bounds of truth and hopefulness. But we trust that it meets with your approval and that the small changes made by this year's board, turn out for the better.

We wish to thank our friends, the Andover Press in general and "Johnny" Carden in particular, for their helpful spirit of co-operation. Mr. Leonard, Dr. Fuess and Mr. Stearns have also given us timely assistance, for which we are duly grateful.

The Blue Book

AS the Blue Book did not come out in time to be commented upon in last year's POT-POURRI, we are going to devote this space to the Board of Founders.

For some years a student-edited handbook has been a crying need at Andover. Last year a Blue Book Board, organized with G. B. Atwood, chairman, consisted of Taylor, Stillman, Hale, Riggs, Booth, and Murphy. With no precedent to guide them they set out on their task. As the book was to be given out free, the cost had to be paid by advertisements. After much toil and trouble, the book was finally published with some much-needed financial aid from the Board of Trustees and the Society of Inquiry.

While this publication may not rank with the other three in importance, it is a very useful handbook and should certainly be continued by the student body in the future.

OPEN DOOR SOCIETY

Open Door Society

THE Open Door Society was founded last year to take care of and entertain visiting teams. The idea has been tried at Dartmouth and other colleges with great success and worked out here in a like manner. When the members of a team arrive at the station, a committee from the Open Door meets them, drives them up to the gym, sees to it that they have everything they want and entertains the visitors after a game or meet. In this way it is hoped that more friendly relations will be maintained with the representatives of other schools.

This year's board of officers, consisting of Remick, President; Cory, First Vice-President; G. K. Brown, Second Vice-President; Layton, Secretary; and Sanford, Treasurer, deserve great credit for their untiring efforts in this, by no means the least important of our school activities.

ATHLETICS

Football

The first call for candidates was issued soon after school began, and about ninety men responded to the call. Captain Johnstone, Bradley, Dalcy, Kern, Tweedy, Parker, and Downes were letter men from last year and with many of last year's squad and an abundance of new material, the prospects for a successful season looked bright.

The schedule was an extremely difficult one; the best freshman teams in the East being represented, and Exeter was the only preparatory school which was encountered.

The first game was played against the Brown Seconds, and was contested in a sea of mud. Andover had the ball within striking distance several times, but was only able to register one touchdown, when Randall carried the ball over the Brown goal line, and the game ended with the count 7-0 in favor of Andover.

The Harvard freshman aggregation was met at Cambridge on October 8th, and the game resulted in a 0-0 tie. The teams were very evenly matched and the ball remained in the center of the field most of the game.

The following week, the Princeton 1926 team met Andover, and another 0-0 game was contested. The game was marked by brilliant playing on both sides, and by the wonderful kicking of Kaufman of Andover and Gibson of Princeton.

On October 15th, the Yale Freshmen, led by Daniel Allen, P A '22, defeated the Blue team by a 7-0 score.

The Harvard Seconds were the next opponents and this game also resulted in a tie, the score being 12-12.

The Tufts Freshman team cancelled its game the following week, and no other team was scheduled in its place. Two weeks of hard work were put in before the annual Exeter contest, and when the Blue team faced its Crimson rivals at Brothers Field on November 18th, every man was in the best of condition.

The game was one which will never be forgotten by those who saw it, for it provided many thrills. Andover was the first to score in the second quarter on a beautiful drop kick by Failing. Lundell, the Exeter left halfback, scored a touchdown in the third quarter but Zarakov failed to kick goal. Exeter scored again in the final quarter when McPhail carried the ball across the Andover goal line, and the game ended 12-3 in favor of Exeter.

ALL-CLUB TEAM

Baseball

With five veterans of the victorious 1921 team and an abundance of new material, Coach F. J. Daly whipped together a nine which at the end of the season was judged by many to be one of the best baseball teams that have ever represented Andover. Practice started in the winter term and by the beginning of the season the team was fast rounding into shape.

The first game resulted in a defeat for the Academy nine at the hands of the Springfield College Freshmen. The team hit its stride, however, in the next contest, swamping the M. I. T. yearlings 12 to 3. In the next three games, Andover was nosed out by one-run margins due to the fact that the team lacked the final punch necessary for winning games.

At New Haven, the following Saturday, the crack Yale Seconds succumbed to the Blue, mostly on account of bunched hits. The Dartmouth Freshmen proved too strong in the next game, and Andover tasted its fifth defeat. Rain in the fourth inning of the Yale Freshmen game made it necessary to postpone hostilities, the score being 2-2 at the time.

The team lost its sixth game by a one-run margin when Dean Academy inflicted a 2-1 defeat. This seemed, however, to be the turning point of the season. The nine began to play more smoothly and showed signs of marked hitting ability. First the Harvard Freshmen, a previously undefeated team, acknowledged the Blue's superiority in a fast and well played game. Four straight victories then followed, the Varsity defeating Tufts Freshmen, State Normal School, Brown Seconds, and Holy Cross Freshmen.

The fireworks started in the very first inning when, after Shoop had struck out the first three Exeter batters, the Varsity drove the Exeter pitcher from the box. Four hits, including home runs by Woodruff and Johnstone, netted the same total of runs, and the game was practically won. The Blue nine was invincible and amassed a total of nineteen hits and fifteen runs, inflicting the worst defeat on our New Hampshire rivals since 1887.

Not enough credit can be given to the admirable coaching of Fred Daly, the inspiring leadership of Frank Lackey, and the fine spirit of the 1922 team, for it will be a long time before any of us will forget that memorable 15-2 victory. It is interesting to note that, during the season, Andover hit safely 125 times and scored 86 runs.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Track

Under the coaching of Mr. Shepard and the leadership of R. G. Allen, last year's Track Team had a remarkably successful preliminary season. Not only did Andover win all its meets by large scores, but she again won the Harvard Interscholastics, this time with five first places and a total of sixty-two points.

At the first meet of the season, held on the board track, the M. I. T. Freshmen were decisively beaten. Huntington, Harvard Freshmen, and Dartmouth Freshmen also trailed Andover in the winter meets. The same four teams were again overcome during the spring, and with the addition of a triumph over Worcester Academy, brought the total of victories up to nine.

In spite of the promising prospect the outcome of the dual meet with Exeter, the Blue was unable to overcome an early lead, and was forced to acknowledge Exeter's superiority by the score of $69\frac{3}{4}$ to $56\frac{1}{4}$. The team had bad luck in the very first event, and it was not until later in the meet that Andover staged a come-back by scoring heavily in most of the field events. However, Exeter's lead was too great, and the meet was decided before the last event. The high scorers of the meet for Andover were: Captain Allen, Wolfe, Dan Allen, and Bradley. The times were on the whole, exceptionally fast, but only one record was broken, and that by Wright, the Andover pole vaulter, who cleared the bar at 11 feet $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

During the season, Avery, the Andover star, broke the World's Interscholastic record in the high hurdles, and Wright, Cole, Dan Allen, Bradley and Wolfe, broke the school record in their respective events.

Not enough can be said for the great spirit that Coach Shepard put into his work and the real feeling of coöperation he instilled into the team.

The men to win A's were: Captain Allen, Bradley, Booth, Wright, Wolfe, Cutler, Tweedy, Cole, Lewis, Hutchinson, Wood, Dan Allen, Wienecke, Chute, and Manager Fabian.

Hockey

The first call for hockey candidates was issued shortly after Thanksgiving, and was answered by a record squad. There were but two veterans, Captain Ellison and Quarrier, available from last year's championship team.

Coach Temple was forced to pick his team from an inexperienced group of players. The first few weeks of training were devoted to cross-country runs, to get the men in condition. The preliminary season was unsuccessful, due mainly to the lack of practice on account of the heavy snowfalls.

The schedule was a very difficult one, some of the best teams in the East being encountered. St John's Prep and Stone School were among the teams which were defeated. Andover held the strong Newton High School sextet to a 2-0 score in one of the best games of the season. This aggregation was the championship High School team of the East. In the Yale Freshman game at New Haven, Andover was handicapped by the large indoor rink and the Freshmen emerged victorious by a score of 5-0. The Harvard Freshmen game also resulted in a defeat, but the game was very closely contested and well played throughout.

The final game of the season was played at Exeter. The Crimson team was then undefeated, and was one of the best teams in the history of the school, being represented by such stars as Zarakov, Drowne and McPhail. The Andover sextet was no match for Exeter, and the game resulted in a 6-0 defeat for the Blue.

Throughout the season Captain Ellison, Rogers and Prior were the most dependable players. Ellison deserves special mention for his admirable leadership and his many brilliant dashes down the ice. The men to win letters were Bremer, Brown, Capt. Ellison, Failing, Holbrook, Manager Jones, Knight, Rogers, Prior and Richardson.

This is the last season that George Temple will act as coach, as Foster, captain of this season's Dartmouth team, will be a member of next year's faculty, and he will have charge of hockey in the future. Knight is captain-elect for next year and Edson is to be manager.

Swimming

This year was the first that Mr. James of the Brookline Swimming Club has coached the Andover swimmers, and, taking into consideration the dearth of material and the loss of several good men during the season, he certainly made a success of his work. Credit should also be given Manager Cleaveland for the schedule he arranged and for the business-like way in which the meets were conducted.

The first loss the team felt was that of Captain Dunkle, who was taken sick and had to drop out of school for a time. Several other good men were unable to compete because of scholastic ineligibility. But despite these handicaps, the team won every preliminary meet but two.

The following list of opponents will give some idea of what the Blue mermen were up against: Brookline Swimming Club, Yalc Freshmen, Huntington School, M. I. T. Freshmen, Worcester, Lowell Textile, and Brookline High School.

At the opening of the season, Andover was not given a chance to win from what was by all reports one of the strongest teams Exeter had had in years. But the Andover swimmers worked untiringly and improved steadily throughout the season. We had no particular individual stars with the possible exceptions of Wingate and Bryant, but when the Exeter meet did come, it found Andover represented by a well-balanced team.

When it was certain that Dunkle could not get back for the meet, Wingate was elected captain. It was under his able leadership that Andover met the Exeter swimmers in the Borden tank on the afternoon of March 17th. The two teams were so evenly balanced that the relay race was the deciding event. This Exeter won by a very narrow margin, and with it the meet, by a 32 to 21 score. Everyone on the Andover team did his best, but in this case that "best" was not quite good enough.

Soccer

A victory over Worcester Academy for the first time in the history of the school and a championship season was the remarkable accomplishment of the 1922 Soccer Team. An eleven, with seven veterans as a foundation, coached by Jim Ryley and captained by K. F. Tsai, won six games and suffered only one defeat. To add to these worthy achievements, the team was scored on but three times and amassed a total of eighteen points against their opponents. As a result, this year's team can without a doubt, be termed the most successful soccer aggregation that has ever represented Andover.

The first game scheduled was with Tabor, which resulted in an easy victory for Andover, but she was forced to swallow the only defeat of the season when the Boston Chinese team nosed out a 1-0 victory in the next game.

However, the team easily proved its superiority to the Harvard Freshman and Tabor Academy, this time defeating the latter 3-1 on their own grounds. Andover further added to its string of victories by swamping the M. I. T. Freshmen, and closed the preliminary season by again defeating the Harvard Freshmen.

With such a fine record, the team had hopes of breaking Worcester's long string of victories in the final game of the season. The two schools had met since 1911 and of the eleven games played, Worcester had won all but one, and that had resulted in a tie. Nevertheless, hopes were realized, for the fast Worcester team was overcome in a close game. The game was very fast and well played, the final score being 1 to 0.

The outstanding players on the team were Captain Tsai, Samper, Potter, Slagle, and Tseng. In the last named man, Andover had a remarkable penalty kicker, and his defensive playing is especially worthy of praise. The men to win letters were: Captain Tsai, Captain-elect Slagle, Dunsford, McNeer, Ransom, Flynn, Samper, Gay, Potter, Tseng, Trevvett, James, Shipman, and Manager Cory.

Wrestling

In spite of the fact that only two letter men returned to school, the 1923 Wrestling Team proved to be one of the best that have represented Andover in several years. Coach Burns produced a well balanced team that, although handicapped by sickness and deficiencies in scholarship, won all but two of its meets. Besides this, Andover revenged last year's defeat at the hands of Worcester Academy by overcoming her rival in a close meet.

Seven meets were held, and in these the team amassed a total of one hundred and six points against their opponent's fifty-nine. The season began with a defeat by the Boston Y. M. C. U. grapplers, 12 to 10, but the Blue retrieved herself by swamping the M. I. T. Freshmen 19 to 8 and the Springfield Freshmen 13 to 6 in the next two contests. Nevertheless, the Harvard Cubs inflicted the second and last defeat of the season by a 14 to 8 score. The next two meets were easily won, the Brown Seconds and Boston Y. M. C. A. being easily defeated by large scores. The Worcester meet was held at Worcester, but in spite of this handicap, Andover brought home a 9 to 8 victory, which ended the season.

In the 113-pound class, Turner wrestled remarkably well and was credited with three falls and two decisions. Captain Johnson was unable to wrestle during the latter part of the season; so Chalker took his place in the 115-pound class, and Look succeeded him as captain. Capra and Bixler alternated in the 135-pound class, and both did good work. Andover's representative in the 145-pound class was Bruce, while Cornish was the team's entry in the 155-pound division. Captain Look, in the 175-pound class, did praiseworthy work in all the meets, and by winning a decision in the last bout of the Worcester meet, he was able to bring victory to Andover. The letter men are: Captain Look, Captain-elect Cornish, Turner, Chalker, Capra, Bixler, Bruce, and Manager Allen.

Basketball

Under the able coaching of Mr. Daly, the basketball team completed a stiff preliminary schedule arranged by Manager Blanchard, with seven wins and six losses. In the crowning climax of the season, the Exeter game, the team came into its own and defeated the strong Exeter quintet 27 to 23.

The first three games, played with M. I. T. Freshmen, Holy Cross Second, and Fitchburg Normal School, all ended in Andover victories. In these contests the Blue showed it had a winning combination if the players could forget their personal merits and get together into a smooth-working machine instead of playing as five men, each for himself.

Yale Freshmen at New Haven gave Andover its first defeat of the season. This was followed by a defeat at the hands of Worcester on the Worcester floor. Princeton Freshmen, playing at Andover, also won, though by a close score. Then the team came back and won from Tufts Freshmen and Northeastern Freshmen, but lost the next two games with Dartmouth Freshmen and Dean Academy.

As the Exeter game approached the Blue rounded into form and defeated M. I. T. '26 and Tufts Freshmen by big scores. Both these games were out of town. In a close game with Harvard Freshmen, Andover accepted the last defeat of the season.

Finally on March 17, came the Exeter game, this year at Exeter. With a large crowd of loyal supporters, Capt. in Miller's men went up to beard the Red and Gray aggregation on Exeter's floor. Although the odds were slightly in favor of Exeter, our team went into the game with a determination to win, got an early lead, and were never headed. After a hard, clean game, the score stood 27 to 23, in Andover's favor.

It would be very hard to pick out one man apart and call him the team's individual star, so we must be content to say that every man gave all that was in him all the time.

Tennis

In many ways the 1922 team's season was one of the most successful in the history of the Academy. With four veterans back, Coach Kelley and Captain Watson turned out a steady, well balanced team, which proved itself to be the strongest among the prep school ranks, and equal to many of the college aggregations. It is true that the team was defeated twice, being overwhelmed by the crack Harvard Freshmen and losing to Saint Paul's School by one point. But, on the other hand, it easily won all their other meets, swamping such opponents as Worcester Academy, Brookline High School, and the Lawrence Canoe Club.

At the Harvard Interscholastics held in Cambridge on May thirteenth, the Andover team handily defeated all opponents, and scored eighteen points, which is the largest margin any team has ever had in the history of this tennis classic. Captain Watson succeeded in reaching the finals, but was defeated by Whitbeck of Loomis. Ward and Sargent survived the fourth round, but were eliminated in the semi-finals. But the greatest triumph came on June seventh, when the Crimson again met defeat at the hands of the Blue team by the score of 8 to 1. This is the worst reverse ever suffered by either school, and gave Andover a lead of two meets over our Crimson rivals. The result of the contest was never in doubt, and because of the fact that the matches were played on Brothers courts, the achievement is all the more commendable.

Captain Watson played brilliantly throughout the season, losing but one match, that to Ingraham of the Harvard Freshmen. Sargent, who played two also played a fine brand of tennis. Gordon played number three, and White was number four man. Ward and L. H. Watson made up the remainder of the team, playing five and six respectively. The TAT men were: Captain Watson, Sargent, Gordon, Ward, White, L. H. Watson, Elwell, Harris, and Manager Atwood.

BASEBALL CAGE

The Case Memorial Baseball Cage

WITH the completion of the new Memorial Baseball Cage now being built on Brothers Field, Andover will be one of the scant half dozen schools in the country whose athletic equipment leaves nothing to be desired. While we have got along without a cage for some years, and many of our individual athletes have been as good as anyone in the East, just stop and consider what an impetus this building, with its manifold uses will give future athletic campaigns.

The actual structure itself is to be 150 ft. square. On the ground floor a clay and cinder track will include a regulation size baseball infield with pits for the shot-put, high-jump and other field events. Then on a kind of mezzanine floor arrangement there will be as fast an indoor board track as there is in the country. The turns of this, which are to be 12 ft. wide will be perfectly banked and graded.

The donor of this new addition is, as most of us already know, Mr. George Bowen Case, who graduated from Andover in 1890 and who was recently elected to the Board of Trustees. During his years at Andover and Yale, Mr. Case played on the baseball teams, captained the Varsity at New Haven, and was one of the leaders of his class. After graduation Mr. Case went into business with the same spirit of sportsmanship and perseverance that had made his name stand for so much on the diamond. Needless to say, he succeeded.

Several years ago Mr. Case's son, George, whom many of us remember, came to Andover and showed great promise of following in his father's footsteps. In his Lower Middle year he played second base on the great team that defeated Exeter 3-1. But the fates willed otherwise, and the next year he died. It is in his memory that Mr. Case is giving the baseball cage.

A FACULTY MEETING

MR. BANCROFT (opening the meeting): Gentlemen, I have here several petitions from our more delinquent students, so I shall begin reading them at once. (Unfolding a sheet of paper, then reading) — “Teachers — This morning I was somewhat late in awakening, and it was by the sheerest luck that I happened to make a twelve o’clock class. The only excuse I can offer is that I was greatly worried last night about my work, and when my weary mind at last passed into the land of slumbers, it did not respond to the alarm.” Signed, W. Toner.

MR. FREEMAN: That sounds fishy to me.

MR. BOYCE: Now, once in my college career, I sat up late, burning the midnight oil, figuring out how Sir Isaac Newton happened to discover —

MR. BANCROFT: Before we hear the rest of your oration, shall we or shall we not accept this petition?

FACULTY (in chorus): Hell, no.

MR. BANCROFT (proceeding with the next blank): “Last night I was indeed out of luck when attending the movies. In the most exciting part, Messrs. Sides and Tower entered the theatre, and I was forced to make haste, but unfortunately I slipped and tore my left trouser. I consider this the height of hard luck, and I hope the more broad-minded members of the faculty will see my point of view.”—Signed, L. Tweedy.

MR. O’BRIEN: I vote that we accept this, as he is so frail looking I am afraid a shock might kill him. (The faculty votes in the affirmative, with the exception of Mr. Benton, who is asleep.)

MR. BANCROFT: I suggest that we give every student about two demerits on general principles, as there has been no thrill for me in the last few weeks. (Motion carried.)

(There are sounds of loud snores, and everyone turns around and sees Mr. Hinman sound asleep.)

MR. BANCROFT: Hey, Georgie, wake up!

MR. HINMAN (awakening): Oh, I thought Caesar was crossing the Rubicon.

MR. BANCROFT: Is there any further business to come before this meeting?

DR. PFATTEICHER: Sir, I have a protest to make about one of our esteemed brethren. On March 17th, in chapel, I was not there, and in my absence, Pat Kelley played the organ. He became so wrapped up in his playing “Ireland Forever” that he broke one of the new pedals. May I have a new organ? (The vote is close, but is rejected.)

MR. BANCROFT: As I have an engagement in Boston to attend a Registrars’ Convention, I must leave.

The meeting is adjourned.

AMONG THE UNWRITTEN LETTERS

Gentlemen of the Faculty:—

Today I received my probation notice and was very much gratified. Really, it was undoubtedly the best thing for me, and I appreciate your interest in my behalf. I certainly deserved it, and will enjoy my sentence.

Very sincerely,

NEARLY FIRED.

Rogers Hall,
May 7, 1923.

Dear Charlie:—

I certainly had a rotten time at the tea dance Saturday. My, what wet friends you have! Why didn't you shave beforehand and take the hay-seed out of your hair? Still, when the Prom comes in June, maybe you'll have the potatoes all planted by then. Hoping you ask me,

ELEANOR.

Dear Mr. Johnson:—

I just had to write you to tell you how much I enjoyed your boarding house last term. I have never tasted such excellent food; and such a reasonable price you charge! Home cooking doesn't compare with the delicacies you serve. I certainly have to congratulate you, and wish you to sign me up for next year.

CONFIDENTIAL CHATS FOR THE LOVESICK

Tell your troubles to Beatrice Barefacts and she will give you expert advice.
(Address communications to POT POURRI.)

Dear Beatrice: —

I understand you give advice to the lovesick, so I am writing to you in the hope that you will aid me. I am very fond of a sweet little boy named "Cluny" (don't you think that's just the cutest name), but for some reason he doesn't return my love. My adorable boy, although not very handsome, is most alluring. He is tall, slender, and very graceful and has some of the most darling tricks. The cute crunching noise he makes when eating celery and the little game he has of taking out his front teeth, are among the fascinating things he can do. Can't you help me win his love?

BEULA.

Dear Beatrice: —

I am just ten years old. I live in Andover, and I am a good little girl. I know a little boy on the hill who is very nice. I like him. His name is Vic Earle. Today I am very lonely. Do you think Vic will play dollies with me the next time I am lonely? I hope so.

Good-bye,

LITTLE FRANCES.

Dear Beatrice —

I must confide in you, as something wonderful has happened to me. Dear Beatrice, I am in love! There is a little girl at Abbot whom I have noticed is sweet on me. She has smiled three times now when I have passed her on the street, and I have since seen a banner with a large "A" on it hanging from her window. This must stand for my first name, "Alfred," and I want to ask you if this isn't a sure sign that she is in love with me. Since I have never been in love before, I also wish to ask you how I can court her. Should I play a saxophone to her from the back window of Draper, or should I practice throwing the hammer when I think she is watching me?

Much obliged,

BURP.

"X" stands for Goodwill who goes to the dance

"Y" is his sweet little miss.

Then $X + Y - Z = \text{Bliss}$.

RICE
ELLISON

One of our learned professors recently remarked that he did not enjoy Conrad's works. We are not surprised.

VAN: What is the Latin race?

Tutoring for Admission to College

Little Hall, Cambridge, Mass.

THE SCHOOL THAT GIVES RESULTS, NOT EXPLANATIONS

It is the oldest (established 1887), largest (upwards of 700 pupils in 1922), best equipped (large brick dormitories, well-arranged class-rooms and laboratories, ten thousand volume library with reading-room with 125 periodicals) tutoring school. It gives a stimulating environment with ample opportunities for exercise, large boat house, fifty tennis courts, gymnasium and athletic field. It has had the most continuous management, being under the same head since its foundation and has the most experienced and foreeful staff of teachers of any preparatory school. Its admission candidates are taught by men whose average teaching experience is twentieth-five years, who are teaching the sons of former pupils and who include more Harvard honor graduates with higher degrees than the instruction staff of any preparatory school in the country. Its methods are individual, its classes small, its success marked and its prices moderate and based on the amount of work done. Summer work can begin at any time the candidate desires. It prepares more men for Harvard, the college with the highest standard of admission, than all other tutoring schools combined. For particulars concerning this school of maximum efficiency, deserved reputation, best traditions, the school with a past and a future, and the names of men in your vicinity who are former pupils, address
